NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Wishing to confine our business as near as within the city, QUARTERLY. To carry this determination into effect, we have placed our whole city list in the hands of Mr. WILLIAM GILL, who will make the collections, and also attend to the delivery of the Papers, and see that subscribers are served punctually. We hope this arrangement will be satisfactory to all parties. Those who may desire to save them selves the necessity of making four payments during the year, can, if they prefer it, pay in advance for the whole year.

Zekiel's Epistle to the Corporation. Mister Editur:-Bein as 1 had cause for to come to Nashval won nite last week, (it bein the nite 'pinted for my weddin, which did'nt cum off on account of my cumin) I thought it about rite I should make the publick awear as to the surkumstances aforesayed. You see Mister Editur its all a owin to Nashval an the bad Pikein of the streats thar as led to the breakin off av my napshalls with Huldy McAromy-tan her daddy his with a mint o munny) but to the piat of the subjeck.

The weddin tween Huldy an me bein sot for arter supper that nite I thought as how I must hev time arter the last lode of haulin to git into town and back afore Squire Been and all the folks cum. Now the grate secrit Mister Editur confidenshally 'tween you an me an the gait-post, why I wanted to git to town ger barber as hes got good tules, so as to look onkommon sprooce unbeknown to Hulvanaties all is vanaty sais the Preecher;" but I could'nt shaiv with Uncle Mike's raisor-it bein gapped like a rip-saw since he's tuk to cuttin uv his to-nails with it.

Well I got into my store-close, cum inter town which I had'nt got to afore I struck the paivements on Church street close 2 whar the man keeps the wimmin folks walled in to keep em from bein run over by wood-waggias. The paivements bein so onregglar on account 'o fellers tryin to keep ther land from washin I had to take the Pike an cum on down to the "Sang Clew Tavern" whar big Frank, whom I used to sell wood tu, k aps a painted pole which inderkates barberin-By the time I got there, them boots uv mine what I'd a been blackin for 2 ours the nite afore, was as chuck full o' town mud as our ele waggin huls arter the freshet fencin-Well they wanted me to leave my boots out dress, and be her own legal adviser. loors at the barber's (twell they node me) and then they shuk hands and begin to shaivin uv me. I reckon them fellers shaived me far nigh about wan our, they'd put so much sope on my jors it took that time to scrape it all off. I felt mity clean about the face, but I-ganuies warnt my underpinnin muddy. I'd a bin a wadin through thick and thin, leetle hole an big hole, up hill an down hill from the fur cend ov town clur to the barbers. They told me ther was no way to git the mud off but by "takin uv a warm bath with my close on." I axed em ef they'd er dit twell I could hall a lode uv wood (fur I wanted to saive a dime to git a "horn" with to keep my dander up at the weddin) but they said they did'nt "shaiv on tick," so I tuck a "ticket uv leave" like the bankers doo when they bust an I struck a B line for Hamp Jones' Grecery. Just about that time a fire alarm broke out an the ingine tak rite arter me, but I reckin I run wuss an a quarter hoss. I wernt satisfied in my idees but it mout be some of them barbers a runnin arter me with a warm bath to serve a writ on me for shavin ther Howsumever,I recebed Hamp's Grocery,tuk a drink, and he sein how I was surcumstanced lent me a pair o old Comparee's shoos, what had bin left thar in soke for licker, 2 years ago. I filled them shoos with newspapers to make 'em fit and started for hum. This time I tried the pairment again but had'nt got fur afore I run a fowl a pile o' goods boxes, sich as store-keepers has to make the croud thick in front o' there dores. It broozed me up sum an tore my new breeches from the p.cket to the nees but I kep on twell I fell across a lode o' koal whar the store clerks had nt lees- do. ure to toat in-it bein stock takin time with um. Them ole shoos I had on would'nt go strait no how-it seamed as ef they kep constantly drunk from 'sosiashuns. I got along poorty peart twell I cum to a jumpin off place wher the paivemeant had sunk inter bliviou fur debt and the jolt like to a shuk every har outen my hed.

Afore I got back on to church street it was dark, an the man was litin uv the street lamps, bein as how the moon did'nt shin that nite.for publik econormy. I had run inter about foar pile o' goods boxes and wun sellar an liked never to hev clum out. I had run over 3 bool-dogs, wan wheel-barrer and a little child, but as luck wood hev it nuver got hit but wunst and that time I jumped inter the middle uv the Church street pike, jest bevant the Metherdist Meetin House, an thar I lost one o' them shoes. The lamps bein fur | Have rented the House No 14 College street, a few enuff a part thar to maik it dark I could'nt begin to find my shoo, arter feelin about in the slush for about 2 ours, I had to go cler back to liamp's to git a match an a candle to find that shoo an by that time it was nigh on to pairol time. CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC. After several years experiment in the manufacture of Gin . I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848. and rendered perfectly pure.

All manufacture is at Scheidam, Holland, After several months reflection what title to give it, I in ed it to the American public under the title Welfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps."-Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland whe the Gin is manufactured; "aromatic" derives its name from the Italian Juniper berry with which it is flavored; and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—cogue, dram—Wolfe's Scheidam aromat drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduce to the American public, and received with approba-tion, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff, under various names. In sever-al in-tances my labels have been so perfectly imitat al instances my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters, to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understa da large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of New Orleans on account of the cheapness of the stoff. Two Bollars per dozen for the Quarts, and one Dollar and Ten Cents a dozen for the Pints, being the wholesale price in New York, It is nothing but American Whisky flavored with the Cof Juntoer, and reduced thirty per cent below proof of Jonber, and reduced thirty per cent below proof A merchant who participates indirectly in the frank by seiling the spurious article, is as much an offencer as the principal, who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable clitzen, who values the health of the community in which he lives, will as me in ferretting out and exposing the unscrupals merchant who, for the sake of a few cents, will ; in jeopardy the lives of the community in which haves.
